New Name, Inc. ("New Name" or "Plaintiff") brings this suit for trademark infringement, copyright infringement, and statutory and common law unfair competition against The Walt Disney Company and Disney Enterprises, Inc. (collectively "Disney" or "Defendants"), and alleges as follows:

I. JURISDICTION AND VENUE

- 1. This Court's jurisdiction rests upon 15 U.S.C. §§ 1121(a) & 1125, 28 U.S.C. §§ 1338(a) & (b), and 28 U.S.C. § 1367(a).
- 2. This Court has jurisdiction over the federal trademark infringement, dilution and false advertising claims pursuant to 15 U.S.C. § 1121(a), § 1125 and 28 U.S.C. § 1338(a). Defendants have, on information and belief, transported, displayed and offered for sale infringing goods in the United States in interstate commerce, and Defendants' foreign sales of these goods were controlled and authorized in the United States. Further, Defendants have sold thousands of infringing goods in Canada.
- 3. Defendants' sale of thousands of goods infringing New Name's trademark rights in Canada has had a significant, pronounced and substantial effect upon New Name's business, both domestic and foreign, including but not limited to the following impacts:
- a. Defendants' sale of infringing products has resulted in a marked and substantial decrease in sales of New Name's products in the United States;
- b. Defendants' sale of infringing products has resulted in a marked and substantial decrease in demand for New Name's products in the United States;
- c. Defendants' sale of infringing products has resulted in a marked and substantial decrease in sales of New Name's products in Canada;
- d. Defendants' sale of infringing products has resulted in a marked and substantial decrease in demand for New Name's products in Canada;

Defendants' sale of infringing products through discount sales.

- and wholesale marketing channels has caused a significant decline in the goodwill of New Name's SWEET & TOXIC mark both in both the United States and Canada.

 f. On information and belief, Defendants, both Delaware corporations with their principal place of business in California, have recognized revenues in the United States as a direct and indirect result of its infringing foreign
- 4. This Court has jurisdiction over the federal unfair competition claim under 15 U.S.C. § 1125.
- 5. This Court has supplemental jurisdiction over the state law and Canadian claims pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1338(b) and § 1367(a) as all claims herein form part of the same case or controversy. The infringing and unfair violations of New Name's rights alleged under all claims herein were part of the same scheme and practice. The scheme was, on information and belief, transitory in nature, just as New Name's sales of the infringed goods spans the United States and Canada. Moreover, sales of the infringing goods (e.g., t-shirts) just across the border in Canada, upon information and belief, resulted in migration of the infringing goods to the United States. Further, on information and belief, the actions were taken through the same channels and means. Convenience, fairness, and the full and efficient resolution of disputes favor the exercise of supplemental jurisdiction.
- 6. Personal jurisdiction exists over the Defendants because they have sufficient minimum contacts with the forum as a result of business conducted within the State of California and the Central District of California, and are headquartered in the Central District of California, such that it would not offend traditional notions of fair play and substantial justice to subject the Defendants to suit in this forum.
 - 7. Venue in this District is proper under 28 U.S.C. § 1391.

II. THE PARTIES

- 8. Plaintiff New Name, Inc. ("New Name") is a California corporation with its address at 1025 East 18th Street, Unit B, Los Angeles, CA 90021.
- 9. Upon information and belief, The Walt Disney Company is a Delaware corporation with its principal place of business at Burbank, California.
- 10. Upon information and belief, Disney Enterprises, Inc. is a Delaware corporation with its principal place of business at Burbank, California.
- 11. Disney's actions alleged herein were those of its officers, director, agents, employees, and/or licensees; and Disney at all times has had a direct financial interest in the infringing actions being committed and has had the ability to control such actions.

III. FACTUAL ALLEGATIONS

- 12. SWEET & TOXIC is a United States, federally registered trademark of New Name, Reg. No. 3,237,383, by way of assignment. See Exhibit A (a copy of the trademark registration).
- 13. Plaintiff is also the owner of the SWEET & TOXIC mark in Canada, application serial number 1,327,044, by way of assignment.
- 14. New Name has acquired substantial goodwill in the mark SWEET & TOXIC, and the mark is extremely valuable.
- 15. New Name, Inc. is the owner of the SWEET & TOXIC mark and all copyrighted designs and other intellectual property related thereto, including the copyright in the work REASON.
- 16. "REASON," is a federally registered copyrighted work, Registration No. VA-1-368-312 ("the '312 Registration"). See Exhibit B (a copy of the registration, along with a copy of the design).
- 17. The '312 Registration was originally filed in the name of Sweet & Toxic, Inc., but has been assigned to New Name.

- Plaintiff incorporates by reference all other paragraphs contained in this Complaint.
- Plaintiff is the owner of the SWEET & TOXIC mark, recorded on the 24. United States Principal Register as registration no. 3,237,383.
- Defendants' mark is used in connection with the sale, offering for 25. sale, distribution or advertising of goods and services.
- Specifically, Defendants have sold thousands of t-shirts bearing the 26. infringing SWEET & TOXIC mark.
- 27. On information and belief, Defendants' clothing was transported, displayed and offered for sale in the United States in interstate commerce, and Defendants' foreign sales of these goods were controlled and authorized in the United States.

 - 30. Such sales knowingly and willfully infringed Plaintiff's SWEET & TOXIC mark, constituting clear trademark infringement, both direct and vicarious.
 - 31. Defendants' use of the infringing mark has caused significant confusion in the marketplace, is likely to cause both confusion and mistake, and is likely to deceive; the marks are identical in sound, appearance and meaning.
 - 32. Such use was done willfully and with knowledge that such use would or was likely to cause confusion and deceive others.
 - 33. The infringing products were counterfeits in that they contained a sham trademark intentionally calculated to reproduce Plaintiff's genuine trademark; the sham mark is identical with, and substantially indistinguishable from, Plaintiff's genuine mark.
 - As a direct and proximate result of Disney's trademark infringement, 34. Plaintiff has been damaged within the meaning of 15 U.S.C. § 1114 et seq.

- 36. Plaintiff is further entitled to disgorge Defendants' profits for its willful sales and unjust enrichment.
- This case qualifies as an "exceptional case" within the meaning of 15 37. U.S.C. § 1117(a) in that Defendants' acts were malicious, fraudulent, deliberate and willful, and taken in bad faith.
- 38. Plaintiff's remedy at law is not adequate to compensate for injuries inflicted by Defendants. Accordingly, Plaintiff is entitled to temporary, preliminary and permanent injunctive relief.

SECOND CAUSE OF ACTION

TRADEMARK INFRINGEMENT

(Section 19 of the Canadian Trade-marks Act and Common Law)

- 39. Plaintiff incorporates by reference all other paragraphs contained in this Complaint.
- 40. Plaintiff is the owner of the SWEET & TOXIC mark in Canada, which has been used on men's' and women's' apparel in Canada.
- Defendants' mark is used in connection with the sale, offering for 41. sale, distribution or advertising of goods and/or services. Specifically, Defendants have sold thousands of t-shirts bearing the infringing SWEET & TOXIC mark.
- On information and belief, Defendants' clothing was designed, 42. manufactured, transported, advertised, offered for sale and sold in Canada.
- 43. Defendants had, at all times, the ability to control the infringement and those directly responsible for the infringement, and financially benefited from the infringement.
- 44. Such sales knowingly and willfully infringed Plaintiff's SWEET & TOXIC mark, constituting clear trademark infringement, both direct and vicarious.

- Defendants' direct and contributory use of the infringing mark has 45. caused significant confusion in the marketplace, is likely to cause both confusion and mistake, and is likely to deceive; the marks are identical in sound, appearance and meaning.
- Such use was done willfully and with knowledge that such virtually 46. identical use would or was likely to cause confusion and deceive others.
- As a direct and proximate result of Disney's trademark infringement, 47. Plaintiff has been damaged within the meaning of Canada's Trade-mark Act.
- 48. Plaintiff has suffered damages in an amount to be established after proof at trial or in the statutory amount.
- Plaintiff is further entitled to damages; an accounting of profits as 49. unjust enrichment; an injunction, delivery and destruction of material bearing the infringing trade-mark; punitive damages; and legal costs.
- Plaintiff's remedy at law is not adequate to compensate for injuries 50. inflicted by Defendants. Accordingly, Plaintiff is entitled to temporary, preliminary and permanent injunctive relief.

THIRD CAUSE OF ACTION

COPYRIGHT INFRINGEMENT

(Section 27 of the Copyright Act of Canada)

- Plaintiff incorporates by reference all other paragraphs contained in 51. this Complaint.
- New Name is the owner of copyright in the artistic work entitled 52. "REASON," recorded under copyright registration number 1,049,211.
- Defendants have taken actions inconsistent with Plaintiff's copyright 53. ownership, including sale of thousands of t-shirts bearing unauthorized copies of the REASON design.
- On information and belief, Defendants' clothing was designed, 54. manufactured, transported, advertised and sold in Canada.

- 55. Such sales knowingly and willfully infringed Plaintiff's copyright rights in the artistic work entitled REASON, constituting clear copyright infringement.
- 56. Defendants had, at all times, the ability to control the infringement and those directly responsible for the infringement, and financially benefited from the infringement.
 - 57. Defendants' infringement was both direct and vicarious.
- As a direct and proximate result of Disney's copyright infringement, 58. Plaintiff has been damaged within the meaning of Section 34 of the Copyright Act of Canada.
- Plaintiff has suffered damages in an amount to be established after 59. proof at trial or in the statutory amount.
- Plaintiff is further entitled to disgorge Defendants' profits for its 60. willful sales and unjust enrichment.
- Plaintiff's remedy at law is not adequate to compensate for injuries 61. inflicted by Defendants. Accordingly, Plaintiff is entitled to temporary, preliminary and permanent injunctive relief.

FOURTH CAUSE OF ACTION UNFAIR COMPETITION

(15 U.S.C. § 1125 et seq.)

- Plaintiff incorporates by reference all other paragraphs contained in 62. this Complaint.
 - 63. Defendants have committed proscribed acts of unfair competition.
- 64. Defendants have sold and offered for sale counterfeit goods, as alleged above, falsely designating their origin.
- 65. On information and belief, Defendants knowingly, willfully and blatantly counterfeited New Name's t-shirts in an effort to gain the value of the design and goodwill associated with the t-shirt.

- 66. Defendants sold the counterfeit t-shirts at discount establishments and prices that could only erode the demand and value of New Name's business in return for short-term profits of Defendants.
- 67. Defendants stole customers that would have purchased products from New Name.
- 68. Defendants' use diluted the value of New Name's business and intellectual property by, among others, diminishing the association with high quality that SWEET & TOXIC and its designs have consistently enjoyed.
- 69. Defendants falsely advertised and misrepresented fact by associating themselves in the minds of consumers with New Name's SWEET & TOXIC mark and designs.
- 70. Such uses are likely to cause confusion and mistake with the public and deceive them into believing there is an affiliation, connection and association between Defendant and New Name, and in fact has already done so.
- 71. As a direct and proximate result of Defendants' wrongful acts, Plaintiff has suffered and continues to suffer substantial pecuniary losses and irreparable injury to its business reputation and goodwill. As such, Plaintiff's remedy at law is not adequate to compensate for injuries inflicted by Defendants. Accordingly, Plaintiff is entitled to temporary, preliminary and permanent injunctive relief.
- 72. By reason of such wrongful acts, Plaintiff is and was, and will be in the future, deprived of, among others, the profits and benefits of business relationships, agreements, and transactions with various existing clients and/or prospective clients and customers. Defendants have wrongfully obtained said profits and benefits. Plaintiff is entitled to compensatory damages and disgorgement of Defendants' said profits, in an amount to be proven at trial, along with other just damages.

FIFTH CAUSE OF ACTION

UNFAIR COMPETITION

(California Common Law)

- Plaintiff incorporates by reference all other paragraphs contained in 73. this Complaint.
 - Defendants have committed unlawful acts of unfair competition. 74.
- 75. Defendants have sold and offered for sale counterfeit goods, as alleged above.
- 76. On information and belief, Defendants knowingly, willfully and blatantly counterfeited New Name's t-shirts in an effort to gain the value of the design and goodwill associated with the t-shirt.
- 77. Defendants sold the counterfeit t-shirts at discount establishments and prices that could only, and did, irreparably erode the demand and value of New Name's business in return for short-term profits of Defendants.
- Defendants stole customers that would have purchased products from 78. New Name.
- Defendants' use diluted the value of New Name's business and intellectual property by, among others, diminishing the association with high quality that SWEET & TOXIC and its designs have consistently enjoyed.
- 80. Defendants falsely advertised and misrepresented fact by associating themselves in the minds of consumers with New Name's SWEET & TOXIC mark and designs.
- As a direct and proximate result of Defendants' wrongful acts, 81. Plaintiff has suffered and continues to suffer substantial pecuniary losses and irreparable injury to its business reputation and goodwill. As such, Plaintiff's remedy at law is not adequate to compensate for injuries inflicted by Defendants.
- Accordingly, Plaintiff is entitled to temporary, preliminary and permanent injunctive relief.

- 82. By reason of such wrongful acts, Plaintiff is and was, and will be in the future, deprived of, among others, the profits and benefits of business relationships, agreements, and transactions with various existing clients and/or prospective clients and customers. Defendants have wrongfully obtained said profits and benefits. Plaintiff is entitled to compensatory damages and disgorgement of Defendants' said profits, in an amount to be proven at trial, along with other just damages.
- 83. Such acts, as alleged above, were done with malice, oppression and/or fraud, thus entitling Plaintiff to exemplary and punitive damages. The blatant and slavish counterfeiting was despicable in that it undermined the very notion of fair competition, stole the hard-earned value of New Name's intellectual property to earn a quick buck for a multi-national corporation, showed a complete disregard for the business of another, and was cold and calculated to be as virtually identical to New Name's branding and designs as possible.

SIXTH CAUSE OF ACTION STATUTORY UNFAIR COMPETITION

(Cal. Bus. & Prof. Code § 17200 et seq.)

- 84. Plaintiff incorporates by reference all other paragraphs contained in this Complaint.
 - 85. Defendants have committed proscribed acts of unfair competition.
- 86. Defendants have sold and offered for sale counterfeit goods, as alleged above.
- 87. On information and belief, Defendants knowingly, willfully and blatantly counterfeited New Name's t-shirts in an effort to gain the value of the design and goodwill associated with the t-shirt.
- 88. Defendants sold the counterfeit t-shirts at discount establishments and prices that could only erode the demand and value of New Name's business in return for short-term profits of Defendants.

- Defendants stole customers that would have purchased products from 89. New Name.
- 90. Defendants' use diluted the value of New Name's business and intellectual property by, among others, diminishing the association with high quality that SWEET & TOXIC and its designs have consistently enjoyed.
- Defendants falsely advertised and misrepresented fact by associating 91. themselves in the minds of consumers with New Name's SWEET & TOXIC mark and designs.
- As a direct and proximate result of Defendants' wrongful acts, 92. Plaintiff has suffered and continues to suffer substantial pecuniary losses and irreparable injury to its business reputation and goodwill. As such, Plaintiff's remedy at law is not adequate to compensate for injuries inflicted by Defendants. Accordingly, Plaintiff is entitled to temporary, preliminary and permanent injunctive relief.
- 93. By reason of such wrongful acts, Plaintiff is and was, and will be in the future, deprived of, among others, the profits and benefits of business relationships, agreements, and transactions with various existing clients and/or prospective clients and customers. As a result, Plaintiff is entitled to restitutionary relief in an amount to be determined upon proof at the time of trial.

SEVENTH CAUSE OF ACTION UNITED STATES COPYRIGHT INFRINGEMENT

(17 U.S.C. § 501 et al.)

- Plaintiff incorporates by reference all other paragraphs contained in 94. this Complaint.
- 95. New Name is the owner of the copyright in the REASON design, a federally registered copyright, Registration No. VA-1-368-312 ("the '312 Registration").

- 96. Defendants have engaged in numerous completed acts of copyright infringement within the United States. These specifically include uploading and downloading of images which are substantially similar and virtually identical to New Name's REASON design.
- 97. Defendants required a third party to upload numerous pictures of an infringing product bearing a virtually identical copy of the REASON design onto Disney's server, located in the United States.
- 98. Defendants downloaded copies of those infringing pictures onto their computers in the United States. The RAM of Defendants' computers also created a copy of the infringing work.
- 99. Defendants' employees viewed the infringing images on the monitors of their work computers in the United States on multiple occasions.
- 100. Defendants' employees accessed the infringing images on at least one computer in the United States.
- 101. Defendant's unauthorized acts of uploading violated New Name's exclusive right to distribute and right to reproduce under 17 U.S.C. §§ 106(1),(3).
- 102. Defendants' unauthorized acts of downloading violated New Name's exclusive right to reproduce under 17 U.S.C. § 106(1).
- 103. Defendants' unauthorized acts of downloading and viewing required the creation of copies on the RAM of their computers, violating New Name's exclusive right to reproduce under 17 U.S.C. § 106(1).
- 104. Defendants' unauthorized acts of displaying the infringing images on Defendants' computers violated New Name's exclusive right to publicly display the REASON design under 17 U.S.C. § 106(5).
- 105. Defendants engaged in other acts of direct, indirect and vicarious copyright infringement.
 - 106. The acts of copyright infringement were willful.

- 107. As a direct and proximate result of Disney's copyright infringement, Plaintiff has been damaged within the meaning of the Copyright Act.
- 108. Plaintiff has suffered damages in an amount to be established after proof at trial and including all damages allowable under the Copyright Act.

 Defendants' numerous acts of distribution, downloading and uploading enabled sales which irreparably damaged the value of New Name's copyrighted work. These damages occurred in the United States, and extended into Canada.
- 109. The amount of damages, in the alternative, is in the amount of statutory damages in the maximum amount for willful infringement under 17 U.S.C. § 504(c)(1),(2).
- 110. Plaintiff's remedy at law is not adequate to compensate for injuries inflicted by Defendants. Accordingly, Plaintiff is entitled to temporary, preliminary and permanent injunctive relief.

WHEREFORE, Plaintiff demands the following relief:

- 1. A judgment in favor of Plaintiff and against Defendants on all counts;
- 2. A preliminary and permanent injunction from trademark and copyright infringement and unfair business practices by Defendants;
- 3. Damages in an amount to be determined at trial, including Defendants' unjust enrichment, such damages trebled for willful infringement;
 - 4. Statutory damages;
 - 5. Exemplary and punitive damages;
 - 5. Pre-judgment interest at the legally allowable rate on all amounts owed;
 - 6. Costs, expenses and fees under, among others, 15 U.S.C. § 1117(a)-(b).
 - 7. Restitution;
- 8. Attorney's fees under, among others, 15 U.S.C. § 1117(a) as an exceptional case and § 1117(b) for willful use of a counterfeit mark, and pursuant to 17 U.S.C. § 505 for willful copyright infringement.
 - 9. Such other and further relief as this Court may deem just and proper.
